The True Policy.

The interesting and striking resume of the capabilities of North Carolina, communicated by Gov. Worth to the United States Commissioner of Immigration, and published in this paper on Monday, suggests the proper theatre in which all the energies of our people should be at present employed. Denied their rightful place in the councils of the government, after having done all that, and more than, comported with their manhood, dignity and self-respect to secure it, it only remains for them to acquiesce, with what composure and serenity they may, in the unjust and iniquitous sentence which excludes them from their Constitutional privileges, and devote themselves to the recuperation of their individual fortunes and the development of the multiplied resources of the State. We speak from an intimate knowledge of their character, and especially from an intimate acquaintance with the present condition of popular sentiment, when we say, that they are done with unworthy concessions to an insatiate fanaticism, and that they will not voluntarily set their own seals to the verdict which is to degrade them. If it is to come, it will be through no self-agency, and they will bear it with the philosophy of a noble and manly character. They will never commit suicide, though they may steel themselves for the stake of martyrdom. They may continue for a while to be the objects of an unrelenting and vindictive persecution, but after years will reverse the harsh judgments of the present hour, and all will be right in the end.

Meanwhile, undisturbed by threatened political evils and steering entirely clear of the arena of political agitation, our people may find in attention to their internal and industrial condition not only the means of diversion from impending troubles, but the sure means of wealth and prosperity. It it be true that, even under the ordinary circumstances of life, he is to be esteemed as a public benefactor who makes two blades of grass to grow where but one grew before, he is to be doubly considered so who, at a time like the present, contributes in any degree, however small, to the work of repairing our prostrated condition. And in this work every man, if he will only set about it aright, can lend a helping hand. The diversified capabilities of our soil, in mineral and agricultural production, the resources of our forests, and our manufacturing facilities, afford a thousand avenues of enterprise and of profit, which, while they promise remuneration to individual investment and labor, will tend to swell the aggregate wealth of the State. We look, for instance, upon the movement recently organized for the purpose of boring for Petroleum in the carboniferous regions of Rockingham, Chatham and Moore,—where, by the way, we have no doubt it exists, or all geological indications are fallacious,—as likely to be productive of more substantial good to the State than twenty years of unprofitable wrangling over the question of re-construction, as matters stand at present.

With a soil of general unsurpassed fertility; with a climate equal to that of the most favored regions of the globe; with a water-power capable of moving the machinery of the world; with the more useful minerals in abundance; coal beds and iron mines equal to those of Pennsylvania; the habitat of that great boon of Providence, the Pine; the indigenous home of the choicest varieties of grapes; with the most extended fisheries South of the extreme Northern Atlantic Coast,—possessing all these advantages, there is no reason why North Carolina should be second to any State in, or out of, the Union. Let us turn our attention to these advantages, and seek in their employment a reparation for the losses of the war. Whatever fate may betide us in the future, we shall be all the better prepared to meet it. If it is to be, under the pressure of Radical malignity, what we have too good cause to apprehend, our strength will be the more equal to the emergency. If the clouds which now lower above us are to be dissipated, and under the influence of wiser counsels and returning reason we are to be restored to our proper position in the galaxy of States, we shall be the better fitted to adorn and illustrate the position, and to reflect credit upon ourselves and the common country.

N. C. RAILROAD.—The name of Ex. Governor Vance having been connected with the Directorship and Presidency of this Railroad, we are authorized to say, that Gov. Vance has positively declined to allow his name to be brought forward as a candidate for either position.

A. H. DAVIS, Esq., of Halifax, in a card addressed to the people of that County, in the Weldon State, declines being a candidate for re-election to the House of Commons.

The National Convention.

Our readers have already considered the purport of the telegram in yesterday's issue, proposing, on the part of the Executive Committee of the National Union Club at Washington, the holding of a National Convention of delegates from each Congressional District in all the States and from the States at large, &c., to meet at Philadelphia, on the 2d. Tuesday in August next.

The object we understand to be to combine, and organize, for the purpose of meeting the issues now before the country, all the conservative men of all parties, who are truly Constitutional Union men, "who sustain the President's administration in maintaining unbroken the Constitution which our fathers established, and who agree in certain propositions, including the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially of the right of each State to order and control its own domestic concerns, according to its own judgment exclusively,—as essential to the balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depend, and the overthrow of that system by the usurpation and centralization of power in Congress, which would be a revolution dangerous to Republican government and destructive of liberty."

In a word, the object is to concentrate and unite, for a temporary, but vital purpose, all canservative men of all parties, who heartily support President Johnson's policy against the policy of the Radicals, in order, if possible, in the coming elections, to defeat their plans and the plans of all who are opposed to an early constitutional Union of all the States in harmony and concord.

We understand that this proposition does not contemplate the organization of a complete, perfect and lasting party, but it is for the specific work of accomplishing the restoration of the Union on President Johnson's platform, leaving every one free to act, after that object is accomplished, with whatever party he may elect.

As we are at present advised, we are entirely favorable to the proposition. It is desirable on many accounts. Frist, in order to bring Northern and Southern conservatives into closer bonds, to interchange views and to effect mutual co-operation and friendship. Secondly, to enable both North and South to understand each other better. Thirdly, because out of this may grow up a party truly conservative, made up of the best men of all parties, for the future defence and maintenance of the government framed by our fathers.

We, therefore, urge the people of North Carolina to hold County meetings throughout the State, to make arrangements for their own County candidates for the approaching election, and for District Conventions for the selection of two delegates from each Congressional District, and the appointment of delegates from the State at large, to represent North Carolina in said Convention, at Philladelphia.

Texas Scheme of the Radicals.

(Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.)

WASHINGTON, June 24., 1866.

The arrival in town a few days since of Provisional Governor Hamilton, of Texas, was not in itself a remarkable event. Provisional Governors have come to and departed from Washington during the past year with almost as much regularity as the sun. Nor is Provisional Governor Hamilton in any sense a very remarkable man. During the rebellion he remained true to the Union, as did many others who were not rewarded for their fidelity with place and power. In Hamilton's case, however, it would seem that the President, while seeking in his appointment to reward and encourage loyalty, made the not uncommon mistake of fostering treachery and disloyalty.

Governor Hamilton, on his arrival here, called upon the President, and was admitted to a long and confidential interview. He called a second time, and was received in like manner, as his pretensions demanded, he claiming to be a warm and devoted friend to the President, and an admirer of his administration. But it does not appear at all likely that he will call again, or that, if he shall call, he will meet with so cordial a reception. And the reason why his reception will be different from that he has hitherto met, will be gathered from a perusal of the following letter from a prominent gentleman in Texas, as indisputably loyal man, well known throughout the country. This letter was received here a day or two since, and has been laid before the President. The writer and recipient are alike well known, and the information conveyed in the letter is beyond doubt. The letter runs as follows:—

GALVESTON, Texas, June 6, 1866.

DEAR ——:—

Governor Hamilton leaves here to-morrow for Washington. From sources, no doubt perfectly reliable, I learn that he goes on at the invitation of Mr. Speaker Colfax, Senator Trumbull and others, who regard him, as one of his admirers tells me, as the great man of the Union party South of the Potomac.

His programme, I believe, will be to produce or accept a rupture with the President. He will then be serenaded by the Radicals, and will lay before the public the condition of the Union men in Texas and the South, alleging that the army alone protects them from being driven out of the country and exposed to every insult and outrage; and that if the Governor who this month will be elected by the people of Texas—Throckmorton—is permitted to be installed, he will counsel the twenty-five thousand Union white men of this State and the sixty thousand Union black men of the State to overthrow the rebel minority which oppose and enslave them. An insurrection will be encouraged and they believe the President will not be permitted to use the army against the white and black Union men of the State in behalf of the white rebels. The President will be denounced in the strongest and bitterest terms as having betrayed the Union men of the South, and given them, bound hand and foot, into the power of the enemies of the country.

His speech will be the signal for a more violent and vindictive crusade against the President and the South than has heretofore been waged; and the plan is to summon whites and blacks to the polls to exercise the divinely conferred and inalienable rights of participation in the government.

My information is direct and unquestionable.

W.

THE PLOT THICKENS.

Here, then, is a scheme that would have done credit to the Jacobins of France in the palmiest days of their famous revolution, but which hardly seems credible in this day and generation. The names of Trumbull and Colfax being associated with the scheme would seem to cast the shadow of a doubt about it, as we have been led to look upon these two men as rather inclined, while participating with the Radicals, to counsel more conservative and moderate measures. But doubtless their associations have corrupted them to such a degree that, with Chandler, Sumner, Wade, Stevens and the rest of the holy-patriotism party, they rather like the shedding of blood. It will be remembered that just before the first gun of the late war was fired, Chandler, of Michigan, wrote to his friend Governor Blair, of that State, that "some of our New England friends think a war would be awful; but in my opinion without a little blood-letting this Union will not be worth a rush." The premature publication of this elegant and Christian sentiment caused the honorable Zachariah some little confusion and embarrasment; but in the subsequent blaze of patriotic fervor that spread over the land, on the announcement of the attack on Sumter, the blood-letting letter was a trump card, and its lofty author strutted through the country with all the pomp and ceremony of a Sir Oracle. So now his associates and confreres may plot insurrection and violence that appear very horrible and fearful in anticipation, but which by manipulation may be made to appear a holy struggle and its authors subjects of acclaim and preferment.

And so, indeed, it is that in this advanced age of the world, we find men, claiming to be enlightened, intelligent, Christian gentlemen and wise legislators, deliberately plotting revolution and bloodshed. The greed of power must be great in men who will so deliberately sacrifice all loyal instincts, all fraternal affection, all Christian principle, all enlightened judgment, for the sake of breeding crime, misery, desolation, death and ruin, that through such agencies they may govern an empire.

THAD STEVENS REVIEWED BY MONTGOMERY BLAIR.—One week ago to-day ex-Postmaster General Blair delivered a speech at Frederick, Maryland, on the "issue of the time," in which he took occasion to point out the results that must follow the present system of legislation in Congress in regard to the reconstruction of the South. In the first place he showed that it was contrary to the avowed object of the war and that Stevens and his faction are trying to secure subjugation instead of restoration. The historical points raised in this speech are very opportune and forcibly stated. Mr. Blair clearly shows that the policy of the radicals towards the Southern States is without a parallel in the history of the world and directly in opposition to the policy of our own government in suppressing former rebellions, and, by way of illustration, recalled the conspiracies in New England against the Union at the time of the second war with England, the Hartford Convention, also the Buckshot war in Pennsylvania, where Thad Stevens advised all his associates "to throw their conscience to the devil" and carry out their scheme at all hazards.

The action of Congress since the commencement of the present session is thoroughly exposed, from the adoption of the Freedmen's Bureau bill down to the numerous constitutional amendments. The working of the Freedmen's Bureau, under the management of the New England agents, is also shown up, and the declaration made that we are fast drifting in our policy into the system practised by England towards Ireland, the result being that New England soldiers will be sent there to collect taxes in violation of the great principle involved in the revolt of the colonies from the rule of England, "taxation without representation." All this is being done that a few radicals may retain power and force upon the country negro equality, negro suffrage and a negro bureau. Mr. Blair was unusually pointed in his remarks on this occasion, and indicated in unmistakable terms the revolution which is now ruling in Congress.—N. Y. World.

For the Sentinel.

The Lieutenant Governorship.

Messrs. Editors:—The Radical organ of this city is much concerned about the position of Gov. Worth and the Lieut. Governor. It professes to know exactly what Gov. Worth wishes and what is the programme of his friends. Perhaps a few weeks more will better determine that matter. It is not yet settled, whether we shall have a new constitution or a Lieutenant Governor. That must first be determined. And then we advertise the Radical organ, that whether it be Col. D. D. Ferebee or Wm. Eaton Jr., S. F. Phillips or Robert Strange, Gen. Patterson or P. H. Winston, J. G. Ramsey or W. A. Wright or Burgess S. Gaither, all of whom have been named for the position, or whether it be some other good Andrew Johnson conservative, he will be elected.

The people of the State are determined to re-elect Jonathan Worth and they will select the right man for Lieut. Governor. That man will be forthcoming at the right time and in the right place, to the discomfiture of the Radicals.

JOHN.

For the Sentinel.

OLIN, N. C. June 25, 1866.

Messrs. Editors:—As you are interested in every improvement in society, and the special advocates of the education of the youth of the "good old North State," allow me to give you a short account of the examination of Olin High School, now under the direction of that experienced and excellent instructor, Mr. James Southgate.

The exercises commenced on Tuesday the 5th. inst., and continued through Thursday 7th.

The attendance was good. The pupils acquitted themselves well and showed that they had been properly instructed. It was manifest that particular attention had been given to the rudiments and fundamental principles of the various studies. A good foundation is thus laid for future permanent advancement and improvement.

On Wednesday night, Rev. O. J. Brent, of Salisbury, delivered the sermon. It was sound, sensible and practical.

On Thursday, at 11 A. M., Dr. Ramsey, of Rowan, delivered the annual address, showing the necessity of education to all at all times, and especially now to us in our present condition.

The address was well conceived and full of instruction.

The declamations by the young gentlemen evinced judgment and taste in the selection, and tact and talent in the delivery.

The compositions of the young ladies indicated refined views, elevated thoughts and pure spirits.

The list of distinctions in the several studies show a commendable ambition and progress among the students.

I trust a bright future is before Olin. The prospect for the ensuing session is fine.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, June 27, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Towles is in receipt of a quantity of superior lime and a fine lot of chewing and smoking tobacco.

Mr. H. E. Shepherd, of Fayetteville, has been associated with Mr. M. S. Davis in charge of that excellent school, the Louisburg Male Academy. Mr. S. is a young gentleman of a high order of talent, who has enjoyed the best advantages. He will doubtless prove a great acquisition to the Academy.

The Fall Session of Goldsboro' Female College, under the able auspices of the Rev. S. Milton Frost, will begin on the 6th. of August.

B. P. Williamson & Co. want 10,000 pounds of clean white straw.

THE CONFEDERATE DEAD.—We publish, on our first page, to-day, a portion of the list of Confederate dead buried at the rock-quarry, near this City. The remainder shall appear to-morrow. The entire list embraces some five hundred names. Of this number 35 were from South Carolina, 27 from Georgia, 6 from Mississippi, 4 from Virginia, 3 from Alabama, 3 from Florida, and 1 each from Louisiana and Arkansas,—the rest having been North Carolinians. Besides these, there are 105 who sleep in unmarked graves, and who cannot consequently be identified.

We are indebted for this list to Misses Bragg, Lovejoy and Pescud, of the Memorial Association.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Cain Rogers, (negro,) in company with his sister, on Wednesday, the — day of June, went in search of blackberries near this city. On starting home, she missed him and search for him proved fruitless. On Monday, the 25th., some negroes, ploughing near a ditch, smelt carrion. On searching, they found the body. Verdict of Inquest: "Died of sun stroke or epileptic fits."

A SPECIAL TRAIN.—A special train will leave Goldsboro' to-morrow morning, at 6 o'clock, a.m., for the accommodation of stockholders and others who wish to attend the stockholders' meeting of the Atlantic and N. C. R. Railroad, which is to convene at Beaufort. Persons, not stock-holders, will be taken the round trip for one fare. The train will leave Newbern at 9 o'clock.

WILLIAMSTON AND TARBORO' RAILROAD.—A correspondent of the Tarboro' Southerner states that, up to the 22d. inst., $35,000 had been subscribed to the capital stock of this road. This insures the organization of the company.

WATERMELONS have appeared in the Richmond and Wilmington markets. We have seen none in this market.

OUTRAGE BY NEGROES.—The Newbern Commercial records another high-handed act upon the part of disbanded U. S. negro soldiers, which has caused no little excitement in the neighborhood where it was committed. On Friday night last, a party of negroes, six in number, went to the house of Mr. Mallerson, on the North side of Neuse river, thirty miles below Newbern. The object of the gang was robbery. There was no one at Mr. Mallerson's house except himself, and a pedlar, who was stopping there for the night. Upon entering the lower apartment, two of the negroes rushed upon Mr. M., seized him, and threatened him with instant death if he made any out-cry, and kept guard over him, while the other four started up stairs in the direction of the room which had been assigned to the pedlar. The latter, having heard the commotion below, and correctly surmising that the house had been attacked by a band of thieves, had leaped from his bed, seized his revolver, and prepared to defend himself and his property to the bitter end Throwing the door of his room open, he waited until the first of the four negroes, who had mounted the stairs, had reached the top step, when he fired. The ball sped unerring to its mark, and the negro fell heavily upon the steps, a corpse. The other three ran down the steps, the pedlar pursuing; upon the appearance of the latter, brandishing his revolver, those who were guarding Mr. Mallerson fell back, thus releasing their prisoner. A fight now commenced between the two whites and the five negroes, which was shortly terminated by the flight of the latter, without any of the booty which they had hoped to secure.

NORFOLK ELECTION.—On Monday last, the election in Norfolk resulted in the choice of John Goode, Esq. for the House of Delegates, J. R. Ludlow, for Mayor, and Wm. B. Diggs, for Sheriff. The vote appears to have been small, and no indication is given of the political bias of the successful candidates, whether Radical or Conservative.

THE editor of the Washington Chronicle, in his Pennsylvania stump speech, compares the Constitution of the United States, "redeemed and purified" by THAD. STEVENS, to the Holy Bible. It would be well, we think, to put the recent amendments to them selves, under the title of Apocrypha.

A Memphis letter says the District Judge recently charged the Grand Jury to find a bill against the city officials who participated in the recent riots.

The London correspondent of the N. Y. World announces the recent death of Lord Chesterfield, and speaks of him as the well known arbiter of manners and morals, the head of fashion, &c. It would seem that the correspondent had in his eye the celebrated author of "Lord Chesterfield's Letters," who died a century ago.

The small pox prevails, and is on the increase in Mobile. On the 18th there were nineteen cases in the pest house of that city, and many outside.

It is stated that nobody knew anything of the ironing of Jeff. Davis, except Stanton, who sent Baker down expressly to order the manacling to be done.

Meeting of the Bar.

At a meeting of the members of the 8th. Judicial circuit, on this, 14th. day of June, 1866, in the town of Asheville, on motion of Major Marcus Erwin, his Honor, Judge A. S. Merrimon, was called to the chair, who briefly and appropriately explained the object of the meeting to be to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of those members of the bar of this circuit, who have died since the beginning of the late war.

Hon. A. T. Davidson was appointed Secretary.

On motion of Col. David Coleman, a committee, consisting of N. W. Woodfin, Esq., Hon. Wm. M. Shipp, Maj. Marcus Erwin, and Hon. A. T. Davidson, were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting,—who, after having retired, reported through their chairman, Hon. Wm. M. Shipp, the following resolutions, and moved their adoption, to wit:

Whereas, Since our last general meeting, as members of the bar of the Judicial Circuit, as it existed at the commencement of the late terrible war, during which every profession and every class of society, more or less, suffered in the bloody and relentless ordeal, a very disproportionate and unprecedented mortality occurred amongst our professional brethren—eleven members of our profession—being nearly one half of the entire number—having died since the beginning of the year 1861; and

Whereas, Admonished of our duty to commemorate the virtues of those, between whom and ourselves the most kindly, and, in many instances, the most affectionate relations existed, we desire to offer a tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased,—Joshua Roberts, Jno. W. Woodfin, P. W. Roberts, C. T. N. Davis, J. W. Candler, Balis M. Edney, W. W. Avery, J. A. Dickson, W. C. Brown, S. P. Jordan, and Carter W. Gillespie—all of whom were practitioners at this Bar and are no more. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of our departed brethren, this section of country has sustained a great loss; our profession some of its most useful members and brightest ornaments; society some of its most brilliant and delightful companionships; and their respective families an irreparable loss.

Resolved, That the families of the deceased have our profoundest and most unaffected sympathy.

Resolved, That as a tribute of respect to our deceased brethren, whose memories we cherish, we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the Solicitor of this Circuit be requested to present the proceedings of this meeting to the court now in session, to be entered upon the minutes of the said court, and that a copy of the same be furnished the Asheville News for publication, and the papers of the State be requested to copy.

Appropriate and feeling addresses were made by Judge Shipp, N. W. Woodfin, Hon. A. T. Davidson, Col. G. N. Folk, Col. Coleman and His Honor, Judge Merrimon; and thereupon the resolutions were unanimously adopted. On motion the meeting adjourned.

A. S. MERRIMON, Chm'n.

A. T. DAVIDSON, Sec'y.

PENSIONS TO THE SOLDIERS OF THE WAR OF 1812.—The Committee on Invalids and Pensions in the House of Representatives have reported against granting pensions to the soldiers of the war of 1812. The Chairman of this committee, who made the report, we notice hails from Maine. This would indicate that the old prejudice against the war in New England has not died out, but there is a determination to continue the opposition manifested at the time of the war as long as one of the soldiers who took part in it lives. The report of the committee is not only unjust, but, in view of the fact that Congress is appropriating millions of dollars for the negroes, it is an outrage. There are very few soldiers who participated in that war living, and most of them are in needy circumstances, and they are the only class of patriots whose services have never been recognized. It would require only an appropriation of a few thousand dollars, and it should be granted without any further ceremony. It is a good sign that the report met with considerable opposition, and we trust that Congress will reverse the action of the committee, and give to these old soldiers the pension which they deserve, for many of them never received a cent for their services nor pay for their clothes. It is time they were rewarded. We know that it is late to begin; but better late than never.—N. Y. News.

RETURN OF GOOD FEELING.—The Cincinnati Commercial reports the speech of Mr. Trenholm, late finance minister of the exploded Southern Confederacy, at a meeting of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, on the subject of a rail road connection between Cincinnati and the South. Mr. Trenholm was received very cordially and his speech received with applause.

Seven years ago the only governments of the world whose receipts exceeded their expenditures, were the United States, Switzerland and the Sandwich Islands. We fear it will be long before we have such another national trio.

There is a "fluteless flutist" performing at Havre. "He makes a flute out of his left hand, which he holds to his mouth, using the right in lieu of stops. The notes he produces are not to be distinguished from the real instrument."

Dr. Lanman thinks that when the lives and correspondence of Gales and Seaton come to be published in full, they will be interesting and valuable beyond anything of the kind ever issued in this country.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.—The refusal of some of the Western States' Governors to call extra sessions of their State Legislatures, practically ends the seven months' work of the Constitutional Tinkers. What cannot be done now, this summer, in the way of Constitutional tinkering, will never be done. New Legislatures, in the West especially, will have new views, when, next winter, the amendments are submitted.

The value of a negro vote in Cincinnati has been put at one cent by a jury who recently gave in a verdict in a case in which a negro sued a judge of elections for ten thousand dollars damages for having refused his vote. This valuation of a "colored" vote should have a cheering effect upon the Radicals. In case "manhood suffrage" should become a fixed fact, they can calculate to a nicety the exact amount of their "colored" election expenses.

The funeral of General Lewis Cass at Detroit, Monday, was attended by a large concourse of people. The military was largely represented. Public and private offices were closed during most of the day. The Masonic fraternity and other societies paraded in large numbers.

The result of the Nebraska election, although not definitely known, is in the aggregate favorable to the Democracy. Their candidate for Governor, Morton, is believed to be elected, while on joint ballot in the Legislature the Democrats have a majority. The same party have elected a part, if not all, of the State officers.

Surgeon Craven's description of the shackling of Jefferson Davis, as published in the Register and Advertiser, created universal indignation in Mobile.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Minister Adams on Mr. Davis.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—By diplomatic correspondence just printed, it appears that Mr. Adams, Minister to England, in writing to the Secretary of State, June 15th., 1865, says the intense interest manifested in the fate of Jefferson Davis is one of the phenomena of this remarkable era, and then adds: Carefully disavowing the indulgence of the slightest acrimonious feeling towards Mr. Davis or any of his associates, I have expressed the hope that the ends of justice might be satisfied with the least possible effusion of human blood. We have had enough of slaughter and of public and private misery. Especially had a severe retribution already been visited upon these misguided people, who had by their wanton obstinacy brought it all upon the country. If even Mr. Davis could be disgraced, and then suffered to sink into oblivion, without seriously impairing the force of the example in the view of latter generations, I should be perfectly content.

If Mr. Davis having, under all the safeguards of our laws, undergone a trial for his offence, should be proved guilty, condemned, and sentenced to suffer the last penalty, the responsibility of interposition would then devolve on the President. I had no doubt that he would meet it with the dignity and impartiality that became his office. Neither was I disposed to believe that whatever it might be, his decision, if given in the manner indicated, would be attended by any of the evil consequences to the reputation of our country all over civilized Europe, which seemed to be a matter of so much concern to our enemies not less than to our friends.

Mr. Seward, in reply to this letter, says he has read with pleasure Mr. Adams' remarks upon the question what penalty ought to be imposed upon Jefferson Davis, which question is so universally and so earnestly discussed in Europe. He adds: "Your sentiments are deemed just and wise."

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.

Tennessee to be Represented on the Adoption of the Constitutional Amendment—The President's Objection to Making Amendments with the South Unrepresented—The Adjournment.

Congress will not terminate the session until the Tennessee Legislature shall dispose of the article to amend the constitution, to be submitted to it on the 4th of July. There will be considerable, though not probably effective, opposition to it in the Legislature, it is certain. Immediately upon the ratification of the article by that State, her Senators and Representatives elect will be admitted to their seats, of course taking the prescribed Congress oath. Nothing more is to be done towards reconstruction at this session.

The President's objection to the proposed amendment, or to any project for amending the constitution while the South remains unrepresented, will be fatal to it in most of the Southern State legislatures. It cannot now be claimed that the President favors the proposed amendment, though the radical organs here attempted to make that impression.

If the tariff bill and the Tennessee question can be disposed of by the 16th or 18th of July, Congress will then adjourn.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq. President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865,] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be it caused me long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. The Proposed Union Convention,---Position of the Democratic Members of Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 26.

The precise position occupied by the Democratic members of Congress, in reference to the Union Convention called at Philadelphia, is thus stated:

They are favorably disposed towards such a Convention, believing that the representation of the Southern States in Congress is not only a right, but is necessary to the harmony and prosperity of the country. They are willing, therefore, to co-operate with the Union Convention for that purpose; but if it shall be perverted from its original and patriotic design for the formation of a new party, they perfer clinging to their own. At present they seem very desirous to further the movement.

Charges against Gen. Kilpatrick.---The tax on Cotton---The Finances, &c.

WASHINGTON, June 26.

Charges affecting the private character of Gen. Kilpatrick, Minister to Ohio, are said to have been presented to the State Department.—If true, they will no doubt cause his speedy return.

It is thought that the House will adhere to its tax of five cents on Cotton, which will cause a Conference Committee. The action of that Committee will probably be a compromise on the Senate amendment, and the rate be fixed at 2½ cents.

The Senate amendment is that all the sea-island lands shall be surrendered to the owners, excepting those sold for taxes. The bill is to continue in force for three years. It goes back to the House for concurrence.

The Senate has passed the House bill mandatory of the act to organize Washington territory. It makes the sessions of the territorial legislation biennial, and increases the compensation of members from three to six dollars per day.

The President has approved the bill for the disposal of the public lands for homestead actual settlement in the States of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Florida.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salves. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast supplanting all the side-cupped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salves have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of theirs, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Urcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is hereannounced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. Wells for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is sur ly wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How complete y this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

A CARD.

Because of affliction and age which renders me incapable of continuing business, I now retire from the Book trade, leaving my entire stock and interest in the hands of Messrs. Branson and Farrer—except the publication of the "N. C. Almanac," which, I trust will be received with the same favor as heretofore.

In retiring, I return my sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage which the public has chosen to bestow upon me during the last half century—the length of time in which I have been engaged in the book trade in this State—and cheerfully recommend to my old friends and patrons, my successors, Messrs. Branson & Farrer, by whom, I am sure they will be satisfactorily accommodated.

Mr. H. D. Coley, so well known to the Book trade and to the public, and so long engaged in business with me will be retained as an assistant in business with Messrs. Branson & Farrer. He invites his old friends to call upon him.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DeROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars ($5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.
